HOUSE BILLS ON FIRST READING

The following House bills, introduced today, by unanimous consent, were laid before the House, read severally first time, and referred to the appropriate committees, as follows:

By Mr. Townsend and Mr. Latham:

H. B. No. 763, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 2104, Chapter 7, Title 42, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by Acts of 1929, Forty-first Legislature, page 71, Chapter 37, and as amended by Acts of 1929, Forty-first Legislature, First Called Session, page 63, Chapter 29, and as amended by Acts of 1929, Forty-first Legislature, First Called Session, page 176, Chapter 67, and as amended by Acts of 1931, Forty-second Legislature, Chapter 339, page 820, and also to amend Article 333, Chapter 1, Title 7, of the Revised Code of Criminal Procedure of Texas of 1925, relating to the appointment of jury commissioners by the district judge; providing for the compensation to be paid such commissioners; prescribing their qualifications; and providing that the number shall be not less than three nor more than five, in the discretion of the district judge, and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. Dunlap:

H. B. No. 764, A bill to be entitled "An Act prohibiting the use of seines, nets, and trawls, or the possession of seines, nets, or trawls, in certain tidal waters of Willacy County; prescribing a penalty for violation of any provision of this Act; repealing all laws in so far as they may conflict with any provision of this Act; and declaring an emergency."

Referred to Committee on Game and Fisheries.

BILL RE-REFERRED

On motion of Mr. Engelhard, by unanimous consent of the House, House Bill No. 688 was withdrawn from the Committee on Public Health, and referred to the Committee on Agriculture.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker signed, in the presence of the House, after giving due notice thereof, and its caption had been read, the following enrolled bill:

H. B. No. 505, "An Act amending Section 1, Chapter 213, Acts of the Regular Session, Forty-second Legislature, and declaring an emergency." (Relating to compensation of county commissioner.)

HOUSE BILL NO. 247 ON PASSAGE TO ENGROSSMENT

The Speaker laid before the House, as unfinished business, on its passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 247, A bill to be entitled "An Act defining certain words, terms, and phrases for the purposes of this Act, providing and imposing an occupation tax on the first sale, distribution, or use of motor fuel in this State; providing certain exceptions, exemptions, and deductions from the tax hereby levied; providing for refunds of taxes paid in certain instances and under certain conditions, requiring distributors of motor fuel to obtain a permit, and to file with the Comptroller of Public Accounts a surety bond, or in lieu of bond to deposit in a suspense account in the State Treasury an amount of money equal to the amount of bonds required; providing that any manufacturer or refiner may transfer the tax imposed upon the sale of casinghead or natural gasoline to any distributor holding a permit as required by this Act upon certain conditions; regulating the issuance of such permits, and providing for and regulating the suspension and revocation of permits issued; providing for and requiring distributors of motor fuel to file new or additional bonds in certain instances; etc., and declaring an emergency";

The bill having been read second time on yesterday.

Mr. Burns offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 247, page 4, Section 2, line 38, by striking out the word "fifty" and the figure "50," and insert in lieu thereof "thirty," "30."

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Greathouse offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 247, at the end of paragraph 2, in Section 16, by adding the following:

"Provided further, that the additional forces and personnel added to the Comptroller's Department by this Act shall be used to aid in the administration and enforcement of all other revenue laws, the duty of which enforcement is now imposed by law upon the Comptroller's Department."

GREATHOUSE,
BARRON, WEINERT.

Mr. Walker moved the previous question on the pending amendments, the amendments on the Speaker's desk, and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

Mr. Moffett offered the following amendment to the amendment by Mr. Greathouse:

Amend the amendment by substituting the word "may" for "shall."

Question first recurring on the amendment by Mr. Moffett, it was lost.

Mr. Pope offered the following amendment to the amendment:

Add at the end of the amendment by Mr. Greathouse the following:

"without additional or supplemental compensation, and without the appointment of additional employes, if the present force provided by and in the General Appropriation Bill can do the additional service required by this Act."

Question recurring on the amendment to the amendment, by Mr. Pope, yeas and nays were demanded.

The amendment was lost by the following vote:
